

Job Application: Political Campaign Volunteer for College Credit

Position Title: Campaign Volunteer Intern

Organization: Committee to Elect Michael Zuren: Candidate for State of Ohio Treasurer

Location: State of Ohio: Remote/Hybrid

Application Deadline: January 31, 2026

Start Date: Flexible

End Date: End of Semester: May 2026

Credit Eligibility: Eligible for 3 college credits

(pending approval from your academic institution)

Position Overview

The Committee to Elect Michael Zuren is seeking motivated college students to join our team as Volunteer Interns. This is an exciting opportunity to gain hands-on experience in political campaigning, contribute to a cause you care about, and earn college credit. As a volunteer intern, you'll work closely with campaign staff on tasks such as voter outreach, event coordination, and digital organizing, while developing skills in communication, teamwork, and civic engagement.

This unpaid volunteer position is designed to align with academic credit requirements at your college or university. Students are responsible for coordinating with their academic advisors to ensure eligibility for credit.

Responsibilities

- Assist with voter outreach efforts, including phone banking, canvassing, or texting campaigns.
- Support event planning and execution, such as rallies, town halls, or fundraisers.
- Create and share campaign content on social media platforms to engage supporters.
- Conduct research on local issues, voter demographics, or opposing campaigns as needed.
- Attend team meetings and provide input on campaign strategies.
- Track volunteer hours and submit reports for college credit verification.

Qualifications

- Current enrollment as a college student at an accredited institution.
- Interest in politics, public policy, or civic engagement.
- Strong communication skills, both written and verbal.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team.
- Reliable, organized, and able to commit to a minimum of 2 hours per week.
- Access to a phone, computer, and internet connection for remote tasks (if applicable).
- Previous campaign experience is a plus but not required.

Application Process

To apply, please complete the following steps:

1. Fill out the form below.
2. Submit a brief statement (200-300 words) explaining why you're interested in volunteering for the Committee to Elect Michael Zuren and how this experience aligns with your academic or career goals.
3. Provide a letter of support from your academic advisor confirming your eligibility for college credit (optional at this stage but required before starting).
4. Email your completed application to mikezuren@att.net with the subject line: "Volunteer Intern Application – [Your Name]."
